

The 2019 National Indian Education Association's convention will be held from Oct. 8-12 at the Minneapolis Convention Center in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

The convention's theme, "Celebrating 50 Years of Building Education Nations: Strengthening and Advancing Native Control of Native Education," recognizes the role educators and communities play in shaping the future leaders of Native education.

The Convention and Trade Show will include innovative participatory workshops, research presentations, poster sessions, and keynote addresses by prominent educators and advocates.

Registration is open to all educators, advocates, tribal leaders, researchers, parents, students, and anyone else interested in learning and sharing about Native education. Regular registration ends Sept. 13.

For more information visit niea.org.

Please follow and like us:

Originally Printed by The Seminole Tribune